

Missouri Hope 2023

12-15 October 2023

DISASTER RESPONSE FIELD TRAINING EXERCISE

Mozingo Outdoor Education and Recreation Area \(MOERA\): Maryville, Missouri

WHO: Sponsored by the Consortium for Humanitarian Service and Education and the Northwest Missouri State University Emergency and Disaster Management Program for students, community members, and local and state responders.

WHAT: Three day disaster response field training exercise focused on:

- Leadership and Followership
- Teamwork and Confidence Building
- Disaster Response and Medical Operations
- Incident Command System and Interoperable Communications
- Emergency Services Partner Agency Training

WHEN: 12-15 October 2023. Staff are required to arrive by 12 October at 1200 for staff training. Participants are required to arrive by 1700 on 12 October for in-processing. Staff and participants should plan to depart no earlier than 1400 on 15 October.

WHERE: Northwest Missouri State University (NWMSU) Mozingo Outdoor Education and Recreation Area (MOERA) and Mozingo Lake Youth Camp in Maryville, MO.

WHY: This domestic disaster response exercise challenges participants to operate in high-stress environments and hone their skills as emergency responders. Participants work together in teams where they rotate leadership positions and are challenged with mass casualty situations, high angle rescues, and water rescue operations. Participants will also gain experience staffing a mock Emergency Operations Center and operating under the Incident Command System.
